

I am a recent subscriber to XM radio. I never thought I would advocate paying for radio, but I'm happy I do. I can think of no reason that we , the people of the United States, the land of freedom & choice, should have anybody dictating what a paid for service should or should not offer. This smacks of restricting of our constitutional freedoms.I respectfully urge teh FCC to throw out this insane petition # 04-160.